

Fetch "Fur" Pets!

Bentwood Elementary was 1st place in 2011 raising $1,018.50 through a one-week bake sale.

Your school or youth organization is invited to lend a "paw" to help Kansas City's homeless pets by participating in the 5th annual metro-wide Fetch "Fur" Pets Contest.

NBC Action News Chief Meteorologist Gary Lezak and other local celebrity hosts will honor the top two groups during the 12th Annual Kansas City Pet Telethon on Sunday, March 4, 2012. In addition to the three-minute live segment during the Telethon; each winning group will be featured in a two-minute commercial during the telethon.

Students are encouraged to be as creative as they like to raise funds for the animals. Your group could have an art auction, bake sale, raffle, etc.

All funds must be received to the Humane Society of Greater Kansas City no later than 4 pm, Friday, February 17, 2012. (The top two winners will be notified shortly after and dates will be scheduled for camera crews to visit and tape footage for the two-minute commercial to air during the Telethon.)

Hurry! Sign your school or organization up today to help homeless animals through the metro-wide Fetch Fur Pets Contest. Show Kansas City your school pride and giving spirit. Contact Casey Waugh at The Humane Society of Greater Kansas City at 913-596-1000 x 115 or email casey@hsgkc.org to sign up or receive more information.
